

Trade Credit Insurance in 60 seconds

From financial health checks to increased sales, trade credit insurance aids businesses to grow by protecting cashflow.

Did you know that 76% of companies whose customers become insolvent get nothing by way of reclamations, meaning potentially ruinous cashflow problems?

Why trade credit insurance?

Risk Mitigation

It enables you to offer credit terms to your business customers with confidence by insuring your trade receivables due within 12 months. If a customer fails to pay, whether it's due to insolvency, refusal or an inability to pay under the terms of the contract, a Trade Credit Insurance policy indemnifies your losses.

Credit Management

With over 100 years of investment in data, our global business intelligence is unrivalled. Our expert analysts use technology-driven processes to generate insights and present actionable information to businesses of all sizes and in all sectors.

Growth

We consistently monitor over 289 million companies worldwide with 1,700 credit analysts based in 62 countries. We help you identify and choose the best opportunities and who to extend credit to for new customers, sectors or geographical areas. Enabling you to grow whilst limiting the risk.

Access to better financing

Banks and trade financiers are often more willing to provide trade finance, or may be prepared to offer more favourable lending terms to businesses with a credit insurance policy.
